Campus Heads Condemn Smoking

WAA Sports Rally Held Today From 4 Till 6 In Gym

Motion Pictures Of Famous German Dancer Will Be Shown

Considered the most important feature of the Women's Athletic Association quarterly sport rally to be held today in the women's gymnasium will be the showing of motion pictures of Hanya Holm, leading exponent of modern dancing. The pictures will be shown between 5 and 6 o'clock.

Besides these motion pictures, the rally will feature demonstration games in which anyone who desires may participate. The various athletic clubs on the women's program will furnish sign-up tables on which they will also display the work of the clubs.

Following the games and motion pictures, a campus orchestra will play for dancing.

HANYA HOLM

Hanya Holm came to America from Germany in 1932 to found the New York Wigman school. Born in Frankfurt-on-Main, she first studied at the Dalcroze school there and later graduated to become a teacher in the Central Dalcroze institute in Helleran.

Soon she decided to go on with dancing rather than music and became one of Mary Wigman's first pupils. She was a member of Wig-

Entertainment To Feature Meeting

Juniors Have Swing Band, Burt Watson, Rapose

Featuring three of the acts that were heard over California's Hour Sunday night, with crooning Burt Watson, magician Everett Lyda, and Roland Band's swing quintet as additional attractions, the juniors will hold their first entertainment meeting of the quarter today at 11 in Room 1 of the Art building. Joe Rapose, Miss Bruce Wilbur, and "The Musketeers" quartet, all of whom traveled to Los Angeles last week-end to appear in the salute to San Jose State, will take part on this outstanding program arranged exclusively for juniors.

PROM PLANS

A short business meeting will precede the entertainment, states Jack Marsh, class president, at which time final plans for the Junior Prom will be discussed.

Watson and Rapose are both post-graduates at State, having been active in football and other sports. They are known as the outstanding crooners of the campus.

Miss Wilbur, a contralto, has been featured singer with the A Capella choir for two years, while "The Musketeers", com-

Dr. MacQuarrie Says Students To Choose In Union Tobacco Battle

Lack Of School Spirit Shown At Rallies, Games, Says Free At Confab

By WILBUR KORSMEIER

Condemning smoking in the main lounge of the new Spartan Union, organization heads last night passed a resolution recommending to the student council that smoking be forbidden in the reading room but favored on the lower floor, which will house the soda fountain and Co-op, as the place for students to smoke.

Over 60 campus leaders at the annual get-together engaged in rapid-fire discussion over the problem which occupied nearly the entire evening. Dr. MacQuarrie stated that the matter was entirely up to the student body.

MARS FURNITURE

Mainly because smoking would injure and mar any furnishings to be put in the new Union, the group voted the recommendation to the executive council. The matter of women smoking did not enter the discussion except as a single question from the floor.

The plan of organization's donating furniture for the Union was discussed, and several ideas were presented. The consensus of opinion finally rested on buying a special lot of furniture, the kind not settled, and then having each club or organization donate the money for a certain piece.

William Myer To Conduct YW-YMCA Open Forum Today

Mr. William Myer, traveling secretary for the Emergency Peace campaign, will conduct the YW-YMCA Open Forum in Room 3 of the Home Economics building today at noon.

In order to acquaint college students with the possibility of youth participating in peace legislation which is before Congress now, Mr. Myer has chosen as his topic, "Giving One's Opinion Registered in Congress".

Mr. Myer has been active in the Emergency Peace campaign since last summer when he gave up a year at a theological seminary in order to engage in peace activities. The weekly Open Forum is open to all college students and faculty members.

College Dental Course Offers Information Direct From Dentists

With San Jose dentists as speakers, the college dental assistant course now offers students direct information from the field, according to Miss Alice B. Hansen, physiology instructor.

Dr. Will G. Sheffer, orthodontist, was the first speaker. His lecture was on "The History of Dentistry".

Dr. L. T. Smith spoke on "General Office Procedure". Dr. Frederick A. Curtiss has given the last three lectures on "Sterilization", "Dental Anesthesia", and "Dental X-rays".

The course is a two year technical course, and offers preliminary office practice.

'Stag' Hop Friday

Prizes galore, a profusion of vocalists, a multitude of stags, and music that's the "tops".

That's the "Stags at Bay" dance that is offered up to students tomorrow at five in the women's gym.

To be given away as door prizes will be six passes to the Padre Theater and two bids, which are selling at $1.25 each, for the Junior Prom.

NEW SINGER

For vocalists at the dance, committeemen have rounded up Joe Rapose, campus crooner, and the "Musketeers" who recently sang as State's representatives on the California's Hour from Los Angeles.

Booked as a warbler with the orchestra is a newcomer to State's "music row", Vera Boatwright, titian haired freshman from Piedmont who has appeared with several bands in the bay region.

Swinging out for the dance will be Myer Ziegler's seven-piece band.

As the "Stags at Bay" title indicates, stags will be pre-eminent for the afternoon. Women will not be allowed to enter the dance if accompanied by males, and during the affair, tag dances will be in the majority.

Following the precedent set by the dance of last Friday, Peter Mingrone, school stage manager, man's first concert group and in 1930 was co-director with Wigman of the "Totenmal" an anti-war memorial produced in Munich.

She held the position of chief teacher of the Wigman Central Institute in Dresden, before she came to America to open the New York branch of the school.

Since that time, the New York school has assumed an independent status and has become the Hanya Holm studio. This change came about partly through natural development of her adaptation to a new country, which brought differences into her work.

She has also taught throughout this country—in Philadelphia and Washington, at Mills College, in Colorado, and in the Bennington School, of whose advisory board she has been a member since its beginning.

TEACHING SKILL

Her work is distinguished among modern dancers for her interest and skill in teaching. Outstanding about her teaching is the emphasis on orderly and anatomically sound technical basis for the education of the body into an instrument of expressive movement. The principles of tension and release, vibration, elasticity, swing, and percussive movement are thoroughly explored and make working laws.

Miss Holm's own work as a dancer is characterized by a deep serenity of mind and movement. Her technique is so smooth as to be deceptive in appearance; her power strong through restraint; her dance composition subtle.

With her in some of the pictures shown this afternoon is part of the group which has studied with her in the summer at Mills College.

SPECIAL INTEREST

Since much of the dance work at San Jose State college is based upon the fundamental principles of Miss Holm's work, these films are of particular interest to this group. Miss Margaret Jewell, faculty member, has been her student in New York, and at Mills College where Miss Marjorie Lucas, also a faculty member, studies.

Working on committees for the rally are various club representatives which include Robin Bruch, Mildred Moore, Marian Faulds, Betty Moore, Joan Hughes, Janice Hilbrandt, Dorothy Tonietti, Frances Scott, and Mary Willson, general chairman.

PEACE COUNCIL PURPOSE GIVEN

By BOB GUSKEY

Organizations are once again asked to send delegates to the second meeting of the San Jose State College Council for Peace, which will be held Wednesday at 6:30 p.m. in Room 1 of the Home Economics building.

CO-OPERATION

The members of the College Council for Peace believe that peace may be achieved only by co-operation, and that every organization and club on the campus should at least send a representative.

Because this organization believes itself to be founded on the basis of democracy, it invites any person dissatisfied with any phase of work undertaken by the College Council for Peace, to appear at the meeting to be held Wednesday. It is hoped that individual differences will be adjusted at this meeting.

PURPOSE

The College Council for Peace, in order to clarify its position, has had a statement of its position and purpose printed.

They are:

1. The members of the College Council for Peace believe that a major war is imminent.
2. That a major war, when declared, cannot remain isolated in any one small area of the world, but will quickly become a world conflict involving the United States.
3. That high school and college youth will be drafted to fight this war.
4. That young people must organize to form a bloc powerful enough to insure themselves against being drawn into a war which, after careful study, they decide does not deserve their support.
5. The College Council for Peace hereby declares itself an organization in which students discuss the problems of war and peace. In the council, students, by a majority vote, exercising their democratic right, will decide their course of action.

TRAIN TO TAKE 300 STATERS TO U.S.F. CONTEST

May Carry Amusement Car;
Dine At Clinton's Cafe

Southern Pacific officials and rally committee members have reached a decision regarding transportation to San Francisco for the February 12 game with U. S. F.

Tentatively leaving the San Jose depot between 4 and 5 o'clock, the excursion train, which is expected to carry 300 students, will arrive in San Francisco at the dinner hour.

DANCING ON CAR

If the present plans materialize the train will carry an amusement car, where dancing will be held, according to Bob Free, chairman of the rally group.

Upon arrival in San Francisco, busses will carry the students to Clinton's Cafe, where dinner will be served. While there, a short and enthusiastic rally will be held.

From the restaurant the busses will go to Kezar pavilion where the Spartans will meet the U.S.F. team. Following the game, transportation will be furnished back to the depot.

ALL INCLUDED

The price of the train ticket, bus transportation, dinner, and entrance to the game will be included in the general ducat.

Notices

The following Soph and Frosh physical education majors appear for departmental interview Thursday, January 21, at the following times:

Fat In The Fire

By JIM BAILEY

Editor's Note: Randy Smith, former State student and popular Daily columnist, takes over this column for today and writes some interesting things about San Francisco.

WE WERE RATHER SURPRISED, and gloatingly pleased over this column's invitation to guest-conduct for a day. But then, when we sat down and put our mind to the matter, we remembered our own under-graduate days of columning, and how we swept and swept but somehow were never able to keep "Sweepings" (a defunct Spartan Daily column) more than partially filled three times weekly. Thinking about this, we decided that here was another columnist who was forever running dry his well of ideas. We decided that, after all, we shouldn't feel in the least flattered.

WE HAVE A WARPED SENSE of humor, of course, but we couldn't suppress a wry smile over a sign we glimpsed on Sutter street the other eve. It said "Shoes Shined Inside" and we thought that to be a mighty peculiar spot to apply polish. Really, though, we're not as addle-pated as we may sound.

NOR COULD WE KEEP A STRAIGHT face at a conversation overheard on a Geary street streetcar (repetition, but what can you do about it?) between a fussy old lady and a gloomy-looking conductor. The old lady gave the conductor a transfer and was quite indignant when he refused to accept it, requesting instead that she drop a nickel in the box. "Why," the old lady wanted to know, "isn't THAT (pointing to the transfer) any good?" Plainly, the conductor was in a surly mood. Rapped he: "Because it isn't any good after 3:30" The old lady fidgeted a bit, then squeaked, "Why isn't it any good after 3:30?" The conductor, between teeth now clenched firmly, muttered, "Because it says it isn't any good after 3:30." (This, you'll understand by now, was a pretty dull conversation).

The old lady abandoned her attempts about then, and went wandering down the aisle, telling herself things about a great big streetcar company which was a mean old nickel-grabbing trust. The conductor thought they could "shop the whole damn' day and then go home on the same nickel." All told, it was pretty futile affair.

WE WERE IN A MOOD then of course, to be prepared for most anything. Consequently, we didn't even bat an eyelid when we glimpsed, next day, a barber-shop sign which stated simply, "Vice Is Our Motto". Some wag who no doubt thought himself to be quite clever had neatly covered the "ser" prefix of the first word, thus giving that particular shop a (to say the least) deucedly peculiar motto.

BEING THE TYPE WHICH COMPLAINS in a weak voice when someone shortchanges us or does something equally provocative, it has always been a source of joy to us to take an occasional ride on a Powell street cable car. We inwardly quiver with suppressed joy every time one of those tough gripmen turns his head sideward to given an erring driver a sound tongue thrashing. With a limited vocabulary (there are always ladies on Powell street), the average

Der Deutsche Verein Has Guest Speaker At Meeting Tonight

Speaking on her experiences while attending school in Germany last year, Mrs. Heinrich Wolff, nee Gertrude Brekelbaum, will be the guest of honor at a special meeting of Der Deutsche Verein, German honor society, this evening at 7:30 at the home of Mr. L. C. Newby.

Mrs. Wolff, daughter of Mrs. Augusta Brekelbaum of the college music department, is a former president of the club.

Married in Germany last year, she will leave for East Africa soon where she and her husband will make their home. She has been visiting with relatives here since the Christmas holidays.

Sociology Club Forms By-Laws At Meeting

At the third quarterly meeting of the Sociology club yesterday noon Mildred Badami was appointed as representative of that group to the organizations meeting called last night by President Paul Becker.

By-laws for the recently formed club were presented for the opinion of the group. Time did not permit full discussion or voting on the by-laws, and definite action was postponed until a further date.

gripmen can, with a few well-chosen words, fry the average driver a deep brown. And never yet have we seen a driver prepared for rebuttal. Invariably we are provided with a mild kick, for aren't we on the gripman's side?

Cagers Prep For Dons

PRESS BOX PARADE

Taking a liking . . .
Real Guy
Broncs Cinch
Standings

By JAMES MARLAIS

WHY BAY REGION fans, coaches, and ardent followers of this kind of indoor sports are taking a liking to the basket-shooting Ivor Thomas these days, is a matter not difficult to understand.

This rangy, somewhat gangly piece of the courts, who, as Sports-caster Ernie Never states, is a wonder who shoots like a light and wanders about the floor as coolly as whipped cream on a sundae, is paving the way in scoring lanes that would compare with any on the coast.

The tall six foot 2 inch Montana star and present leader of Northern California Intercollegiate Basketball scorers who prepped at Hayward High, is not only a shooting demon and a master on the floor, but he is a "real guy".

Ivor, it seems, was ejected from a Christmas vacation game for an under-the-basket brawl, proving he is everything said by Stanford's coach John Bunn—a fighting, scrappy, valuable man.

Bunn, after the Spartan-Cardinal game, was heard to remark: "That guy is good enough to play on my team any day."

Though comparative scores have often driven the coaches into hysterics, a list of names representing the loop's high scorers is causing the Spartan coach to smile.

Ivor, we are informed by conference officials, is leading the loop with 53 points.

find these tame "Little Big Game" rivals—the Gaels and the Broncs nestled comfortably at the top and beyond the groping fingers, I'm afraid of the Spartans, the Dons or the Bengal Tigers.

That George Barsi's Santa Clara Broncs trounce the Gaels in their annual little get-together, I will predict, and again I will say that the Gaels will cling to the second berth ahead of San Jose State, who we assure you, will at some precise moment, come through with a smashing triumph over a top-notch to muddle the standings.

Jimmy Underhill's "Indiana Merry-go-rounding" blue and red Gaels cannot defeat the Broncs as long as Ed "Nellie" Nelson

Unbeaten Gaels Drop Spartans In Standings

A falling "rocket" burst on the hopes of San Jose State's basketball team for second place honors in the NCIC at Kezar pavilion last Tuesday night, and as a result Coach Bill Hubbard's boys are seriously contemplating this Saturday night's contest with U.S.F.

Ivor Thomas, a lad about whom San Jose fans have heard a great deal, was unable to overcome the aggressive under-the-bucket work of Rockwell and Minahan's timely second half baskets—and San Jose added another digit to the "loss" column, while the team reputed to have the smoothest aggregation in its history (St. Mary's) rolls on toward an "undefeated vs. undefeated" mid-season clash with Santa Clara.

BETTER CHANCE

Coach Bill Hubbard, who predicted before the Gael contest, that "we'll have a better chance of winning from S.F.U. than from St. Mary's," looks forward eagerly to the arrival of the foggy city cagers.

Kezar baskets situated with nothing but colorless space surrounding them proved as big a handicap to Spartan long shots as Coach Hubbard said they would.

ROCKWELL GOOD

Only the under-hand Rockwell, a lad who aims with care and lets fly in a manner long ago condemned by leading basketball authorities, seemed to be able to hit the long ones.

Rockwell, too, is ranked with Luisetti by some, and his flashy breaking type of basketball seemed destined to score more than a few baskets against the Spartans.

INTRA-MURAL SPORTS

By WALTER HECOX

Bob Locks, (The Bob Locks) announced today that the lads who enjoy socking the goose-feathered bird of the Badminton court with those strange long-handled sticks called racquets, should sign the card adjoining the bulletin board of the men's gym, if they care to compete in the Intra-Mural badminton tourney.

Play will start as soon as the sign-up is complete.

parks his 6 foot 5 inch frame beneath the hoop. That "Nellie" is a basketball star, I do not say, but I will state that a Nelson on this Spartan quint would elevate the Spartans from just another Northern California conference team to one of the highest-scoring, smoothest-working units on the coast.

HERE WE PRESENT, and again, make a fearless prediction that these standings with the ex-

BIG SCHEDULE ATTEMPTS IN BOXING, SWIMMING, BASEBALL ANNOUNCED BY GIL BISHOP

Nineteen Meets, Including Hayward Championships Listed On Sked

Nineteen definite meets, including the Northern California championships at Hayward, are listed on the 1937 swimming schedule, according to the list released yesterday by Graduate Manager Gil Bishop.

Swimfests with Stanford, Occidental, Olympic club, Fullerton Jaysee, and home series with the College of Pacific, Athens club, and Menlo Junior college are among the meetings.

All of the meets will pit the Spartan varsity and frosh paddlers as separate teams, against the invading forces, except in the meets where the frosh tangle with high school teams.

A tentative arrangement has been made with some Central and Southern California schools for meets during spring vacation. If the plans for these are completed the Spartan team will travel south during the week of March 21 to 28.

The complete schedule follows:

- Feb. 5—San Francisco YMCA, here.
- Feb. 12—Stanford, here.
- Feb. 18—Athens club, here.
- Feb. 25—Athens club, Oakland.
- Feb. 26—San Jose High, here, (frosh).
- March 4—Fullerton J. C., here.
- March 5—Burlingame High, here (frosh).
- March 9—Sequoia High, here, (frosh).
- March 12—Menlo J. C., here.
- March 13—Northern California Championships, Hayward.
- March 18—San Mateo High, here, (frosh).
- March 22-23—Tentative meets in Southern California.
- March 25—Occidental, here.
- April 2—Stanford, here, (frosh).
- April 3—Olympic club, here.
- April 8—Montezuma, here, frosh.
- April 9—C. of Pacific, Stockton.
- April 15—Palo Alto High, here, (frosh).
- April 16—Menlo J. C., Menlo.
- April 23—C. of Pacific, here.

FENCING

Proving to be one of the most enthusiastically received of the mixed sport clubs, the Fencing club held its second meeting Tuesday at 11 o'clock.

Men are in the majority and the club is still open to men and women who are interested in this popular sport.

Election of officers was held at the meeting and Evelyn DePew was named president. Joe Turboosky was selected as the representative of the first place tie, will remain to the end of the season.

Heavy Schedule For Baseball Team Arranged

Coach Gil Bishop and his Spartan clubmen open the 1937 baseball season January 30, to start the heaviest horsehide schedule that San Jose State has ever witnessed.

Official release of the new schedule was made known yesterday when President T. W. MacQuarrie put "OK" on the arranged contests.

Included in the 1937 season's games will be a barnstorming tour to start right after the close of this quarter. The Spartans will journey to Tucson, Arizona on March 23 and 24, for a two game series with the Wildcats. Then they return to Southern California on March 25 and 27 for two possible contests with U.S.C. and U.C.L.A. (games yet to be arranged).

SCHEDULE

- Jan. 20—Mission Reds at San Francisco (tent.).
- Feb. 3—St. Mary's at St. Mary's.
- Feb. 5—Santa Clara at Santa Clara.
- Feb. 6—Super-Shells at San Jose.

It is not necessary to be an experienced fencer to join this club. A group is included for beginners at the sport.

SWIMMING CLUB

On Monday night the swimming pool fairly hums with activity as the Swimming club prepares for its coming extravaganza. The last extravaganza proved so popular when presented last June that it was presented for several additional evenings.

Money gained from the last extravaganza was used to purchase a light 14-foot canoe. This canoe was especially constructed for the swimmers at Guernville on the Russian River. The canoe is for the use of the Swimming club only, and each Monday night meeting is to feature canoe instruction by Miss Gail Tucker, faculty sponsor.

Northern Meets Top State Boxing Sked; Includes Bronco Match

Starting with the San Francisco YMCA Friday, and staging their finale at the Civic auditorium against the University of Santa Clara April 9, Spartan boxers will indulge in a well-crowded season consisting of twelve appearances during ten weeks of ring warfare.

Dual meets with five colleges and universities are included in this schedule, among which are the champion studded teams of Washington State college and the University of Idaho.

NORTHERN MEETS

The matches with the two northern colleges will be held in Pullman, Washington, and Moscow, Idaho, respectively, taking the Spartans farther from Washington Square than any fistic organization has tarveled during San Jose's short ring history.

The Pacific coast Inter-Collegiate, to be held March 5 and 6, and the National Inter-Collegiate on April 1, 2, and 3, both of which will be staged by the Cal Aggies in Sacramento, will probably headline the Spartan schedule and give them their first shot at a national championship.

MEET BRONCS

Providing a real thrill for the local fans will be matches with the Santa Clara Broncos to be held at the Civic auditorium April 9. This meeting has been the dream of the Washington Square fans ever since, the Spartan boxers leaped into prominence a little less than a year ago.

The complete schedule follows:
Jan. 25—San Francisco YM, here.
Jan. 25—Junior PAA tournament, San Francisco.

- Feb. 1—Junior PAA, San Francisco.
- Feb. 8—Junior PAA, San Francisco.
- Feb. 12—San Francisco YMCA tournament, San Francisco.
- Feb. 15—Junior PAA, semi-finals, and finals, San Francisco.
- Feb. 18—University of San Francisco, here.
- Feb. 25—Cal Frosh vs. Spartan Frosh, here.
- March 5-6—Pacific Coast Intercollegiate, Sacramento.
- March 12—Arizona State, here.
- March 20—Washington State college, Pullman, Washington.
- March 22—University of Idaho, Moscow, Idaho.
- April 1-2-3—National Intercollegiate, Sacramento.
- April 9—Santa Clara, Civic auditorium.

thusiasts, the Tap and Clog club held its first meeting yesterday in the Apparatus room of the men's gymnasium.

Dorothy Baldwin and Bill Jones were the organizers of the club, and are teaching the members new dance routines.

Although many students, both men and women, turned out, there are still a few vacancies in the club, and anyone who wishes to join is asked to attend the next meeting, Tuesday at 11.

As in the Fencing club, men are the majority of members.

Collapsed College Well Goes Under Investigation To Determine Worth

Casing Breaks, Resulting In Dirt, Sand Blocking Flow Of Water

Work was begun Tuesday to determine whether or not the school well which collapsed shortly before Christmas, could be put into operation again, according to Mr. Ed Thompson, director of finance.

Trouble started when the casing which houses the well column broke, allowing dirt and sand to fall in and block the flow of water from the bottom of the well. For several months in the fall quarter sand was noticed in the water, but it was not until Christmas vacation that the influx of dirt was sufficient to stop the water.

A weighted plunger is at present being dropped into the casing in an effort to break through the obstruction. If the process is successful, a smaller casing may be inserted within the old one, doing away with the present difficulty, Mr. Thompson said yesterday.

"We will know by Thursday night whether or not we can use the old well", Thompson said.

Since the break, the college has been supplied with water from the city water mains. This is costing the college $1,000 a month.

Seven years ago the same thing happened, and the present well was built as the former one could not be repaired.

posed of Ray Ruf, Carlton Lindgren, Harry Harter, and Willard LeCroy, is the outstanding male quartet on the campus.

MAGICIAN

Everett Lyda has shown his magical feats several times in the past. He can be counted on, states Marsh, to offer some new mystifiers for the benefit of the juniors.

A jam session led by pianist Roland Band will contribute some "swing" to the program.

Juniors who want to attend should come promptly as there are a limited number of seats in Room 1 of the Art wing.

Afternoon Jig Plans To Feature Stag Line

is preparing special lighting with spotlights which will be flashed on the dancers.

CROWD EXPECTED

Says dance head Don Walker, "We are expecting the largest crowd ever to attend an afternoon dance tomorrow. The committee has made every effort to give the students exactly the kind of dance they want."

Admission to the affair will be ten cents with student body cards, and the dancing will last from five to seven.

Radio Announcers Speak To Students

Radio script and continuity writing were the phases of radio broadcasting that Gene Clark and Joy Storm, assistant manager and program manager of KQW respectively, spoke on before the newly formed radio speech class.

Mr. Storm took the class to the KQW studios January 12, where he discussed radio techniques and problems of program arrangement.

CONTINUITY

January 19, Mr. Clark, the new assistant manager at the station, spoke to the class on continuity writing and the writing and presentation of commercial scripts.

"If persons coming for auditions would come with the idea of selling something, the hiring manager would have a basis for the judgement of quality," declared Mr. Clark.

Programs have been planned with three or four sponsors, each on the same program with equal advertising time in which, explained Mr. Clark, the advertising is closely related with the program.

"SAFETY LANE"

"Safety Lane", a program started by Mr. Clark, has a cast which includes Harold Randle and Bill Gordon, San Jose State college speech students.

Organizations Meeting Condemns Smoking In New Student Union

Financing the proposed renovations arose as a discussion, and Dr. T. W. MacQuarrie stated, "I think that the quarries and furnishings should be charged to the entire student body, and let the organizations save their money for other things." He explained the whole set-up of securing the City library for the Spartan Union and said that he was in favor of a real architect coming in and making plans instead of some make-shift plan being arranged."

NEW OR USED

Considerable argument arose over the type of furniture to be secured and whether to purchase new or used. No definite opinion was reached, although President Becker stated that he would soon appoint a planning committee that would make arrangements to please the entire student body.

Dr. MacQuarrie gave many ideas when he commented on the smoking situation. He said in part: "I think it wise to put good furniture in the Union that we will be proud of, but I think it very unwise to put good furniture in the Union if there is to be smoking. In no time the chairs, tables, and rugs will be marred."

"The student body as a whole has a responsibility to the students, to the community, and to the alumni, and I do not think that the present group of agitators should make a radical change that would cast a reflection on the college. Some say that we should be modern for a change, but if we haven't been modern, we have certainly been

SOPHS TO HOLD ANNUAL DANCE IN FEBRUARY

"Antarctic Cruise" has been selected as the theme of the traditional Sophomore class dance which will be held Saturday, February 27. The place of the dance which will be semi-formal, has not as yet been named.

Named on the various committees for the dance were the following sophomores: Laureess Wise, Roberta Ewing, patrons; Jerry Girdner, Arnold Grim, orchestra; Dorothy Curry, bids; Amy Silva, Ed Cary, refreshments; Charles Atlas, Elaine Johns, decorations.

The dance, which is the annual presentation of the Sophomore class, will be the first social activity under the new president, Harold Wise. Last year the Sophomore class presented the "June in January Dance", which was considered one of the finest social affairs of the winter quarter.

NEW THEME

Always centering around the winter theme, "Sophomore Freeze" has often been the theme of this dance, but "Antarctic Cruise" was selected because, according to President Wise, it offers ample opportunity for originality in bids and decorations.

getting along quite well and satisfactorily for some time."

FREE LA TORRE

On another subject, Robert Rector, member of the council, and editor of La Torre, explained the policy of the yearbook, which is distributed free to all students. He stated that in former years only 300 students, aside from the seniors, purchased books, and in an effort to present to all students a true picture of campus life, the smaller and less expensive La Torre was published. Before, the yearbook cost $4,000 for about 800 copies, and last year the free La Torre to 2,575 students amounted to only $3,000. He invited any criticism on the present plan.

Bob Free, rally committee head, appealed for more school spirit, deploring its lack, and stating that his committee was doing all in its power to give the students what they wanted in the way of rallies.

PEACE COUNCIL

The matter of the Peace council was brought up, and several organizations suggested looking into the group's activities.

President Becker, after announcing another meeting in the near future, adjourned the discussion promptly at nine o'clock.

NOTICE

Phi Mu Alpha, honorary men's music society, will meet tonight at the home of Mr. George Matthews, 549 South 10th St.

Earl Roberts To Lead Hiking Club

Hall's Bridge, in the Santa Cruz mountains, will be visited by the Hiking club Sunday, providing weather conditions are favorable.

Meeting at 9 o'clock Sunday morning at Seventh and San Antonio streets, the hikers will drive to a point near Los Gatos where the hike will begin.

Earl Roberts will lead the hikers on this first trip of the quarter. Those who have cars will be given expense money, while others will be charged 20 cents for transportation.

Sale Of Junior Prom Bids Rapid

Junior Prom bids are selling fast, according to Don Walker, member of the dance committee, and those who intend to be present at the affair should get their bids immediately.

Another reason for getting bids early, according to Jack Gruber, also a member of the committee, is for the practice of trading dances.

Since the Prom will be a program dance, with each bid serving as a program, dances will be announced by the orchestra leader to eliminate confusion.

Announcement that Joe Rapose would sing with his brother Leonard, whose orchestra will play for the Prom January 29, is the last highlight that has been announced as an attraction to the dance.

Debate Meetings Now Held Tuesday Mornings

Meetings of the varsity debate organization have been changed from Wednesday afternoons at 4 o'clock to Tuesday mornings at 11 o'clock, it was disclosed by Ralph Eckert, debate instructor.

This change is tentative and dependent upon how many of the students belonging to the organization will be unable to make the new hour.

The first meeting at the new hour will be held next Tuesday in Room 163.

NOTICES

'Spring Dance' Will Be Followed By English Drama One Month Later

'Cassilis Engagement' To Tell Of Love Of Nobleman - For Blues Singer

Following production of "Spring Dance", a college comedy by Philip Barry, on February 10, 11, and 12, "Cassilis Engagement", a sophisticated English problem drama by St. John Hankin, will be presented one month later in the Little Theater.

Members of the Dramatics department, directed by Mr. Hugh Gillis, will enact both plays, and rehearsals are in progress at the present time.

THEME

An English nobleman's love for a night-club singer and how its impracticability is made apparent by the nobleman's mother is the theme of "Cassilis Engagement".

Bill Gilson will play the nobleman, and June Chestnut, Lady Mabel.

Other parts in the drama will be taken by Ruth MacQuarrie, Wanda Tower, Marian Hushbeck, Jean Holloway, Lavelle Smith, Henry Puckett, Johnson Mosier, and George Ryan.

ONE-ACTS

In addition to "Cassilis Engagement" and "Spring Dance" a program of one-act plays will be presented March 17 and 18 in the Little Theater. Four actresses will take part in three different types of plays during the same night as an experimental production, states Mr. Gillis.

Students will be admitted free to all plays on Wednesday and Thursday evenings, Mr. Gillis says. On Fridays 25 cents will be charged students, while outsiders will be admitted for 50 cents on any night.

Supervisor Reports Student's Progress

Returning recently from a trip to Stanislaus County where she observed student teachers, Mrs. Elizabeth Walsh, of the Education staff, commented that all the girls were progressing satisfactorily and that most of them had already started class projects.

Those observed by the supervisor were Pauline Doty, Lorena Riggs, Edna White, and Mabel Rydquist, who are in elementary country schools; Elvera Fallquist, Jessie Anderson, Turlock; Jeannette Smith, and Marie Silveira, Modesto.
